

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

It is the journal's policy that each submitted manuscript be reviewed by three persons qualified to judge its merits. Criteria of particular importance are originality, scholarly significance, clarity, and theoretical and methodological soundness. A manuscript should stand alone in terms of problem delineation, review of prior relevant research, description or presentation of data (including adequate illustrations), interpretation, and literature citation.

Four (4) copies of each manuscript should be submitted to the Editorial Office. Manuscripts should be word-processed (typewritten manuscripts will be considered) and double-spaced throughout, including references, tables, and end notes. End notes, if used at all, should be kept to an absolute minimum, and should be typed on a separate sheet. An electronic copy of the manuscript should be submitted as well, along with a current e-mail address where author(s) can be reached.

References to literature should be indicated throughout the text with page numbers included (American Anthropologist style), e.g., "(Smith 1959:24–28)" or ". . . according to Smith (1959: 24–28), the animals . . ." All references cited in the text (and only those references) will be included in the bibliography. In the bibliography, use complete names of authors rather than initials whenever possible.

Illustrations should be sized to fit the journal's page or column width and length. Original line drawings or PMTs are required, and photographic plates should be of high quality. Captions should be typed separately whenever possible; they should not be part of the illustration.

The journal's Style Sheet is published in Volume 44, Number 1, 2007. Contributors are also strongly urged to consult the latest edition of the Chicago Manual of Style before submitting a final manuscript. The Style Sheet and illustration guidelines can be found on the journal's website: //www.wisc.edu/wisconsinpress/journals/.

Send inquiries and manuscripts to:

Editor
Arctic Anthropology
The Peary-MacMillan Arctic Museum
9500 College Station
Bowdoin College
Brunswick, Maine 04011

Comments concerning Arctic Anthropology articles are welcome, and will be considered for publication.

Back issues are available from Periodicals Servicing Company (Vol. 1–12), 11 Main Street, Germantown, New York 12526, and from the University of Wisconsin Press (Vol. 13–24).