The Constitution Express: A 40 Year Retrospective

BC Studies no. 212, Winter 2021/22

Guest edited by Emma Feltes and Glen Coulthard

ORIGINATING IN BRITISH COLUMBIA, the Constitution Express was an Indigenous movement launched in 1980 in response to the Canadian government's plans to 'patriate' the Constitution from the UK. It was a local, national, and international movement with far-reaching impacts on decolonial thought and action and among colonized peoples around the world. This special issue reflects the simultaneously local and transnational facets of the movement, and contributes a nuanced perspective on provincial politics and the scholarship of Indigenous rights. Featuring articles and reflections by Emma Feltes, Louise Mandell, Kent McNeil, Sarah Nickel, Millie Poplar, Rudolf Rýser, Sharon H. Venne, and Lorna Wanosts'a7 Williams.
